

Lord of the Flies Student Reflection Worksheet

1. How did it affect your understanding of Lord of the Flies to read the story through the lens of civilization versus savagery?

2. What did you find most interesting to think about in connection with the story?

3. What did you find most challenging about reading this text, and what helped you address this challenge?

4. Which activities, projects, or additional readings did you find particularly interesting or helpful to your understanding of Lord of the Flies?

5. Describe one challenge you faced while working on an activity or project and how you overcame it.

6. What new insight or skill did you take away from this lesson?