Athena's Divine Intervention

While Poseidon does his best to keep Odysseus from ever reaching home, Athena champions Odysseus and his family. She intervenes in different ways continuously throughout The Odyssey. Use the following graphic organizer to identify examples of ways that Athena intervenes in the story, whether her actions are helpful or harmful. When you have completed your chart, work with a partner or in small groups to discuss how the story might have had a different ending without Athena's help.
