

The Scarlet Letter The Big Four

Consider the four major characters in The Scarlet Letter: Hester Prynne, Pearl, Arthur Dimmesdale, and Roger Chillingworth. First, describe each character's physical appearance. Then choose a line of dialogue spoken by each character that reveals something important about him or her. Be sure to cite the page number. Describe an event the character makes happen, citing the chapter in which it occurs. Finally, describe the character's crime and the imposed punishment. Use your completed chart to answer the two questions at the bottom of the worksheet.

Character	Physical Appearance	Significant Line of Dialogue	Important Event	Crime	Punishment
Hester Prynne	Tall and elegant	"What we did had a consecration of its own. We felt it so! We said so to each other!" (page 161)		Birth of a child without a legal husband as the father
Pearl
Arthur Dimmesdale

Roger Chillingworth
